FROND IN FORM.

The racing at Hawthorne yesterday was a decided improvement over that of the day before, quite a number of good class horses performing in the various races. The track was not quite at its best, but it was rather fast, the cool weather keeping the thoroughbreds from running to their best notch.

The feature event of the day was a free handicap for two-year-olds at six furlongs with $700 added. The winner proved to be Pat Dunne's good gelding J. V. Kirby, which, when called upon at the last eighth, moved up to his opponents and passed them rather handily. Off to a good start, Jaubert flashed to the front, opening a gap of two lengths when going down the backstretch, with Miracle II. a nose in front of J. V. Kirby, which was nearly two lengths in the lead of Rosewar. Jaubert continued in the van by about the same margin as the final turn was reached, with little change in the other positions, except that Rosewar had moved up and joined J. V. Kirby and Miracle II. When straightened well for home the quartet were on pretty even terms, but J. V. Kirby, on the outside, appeared to be running the easiest. Jaubert was the first to crack as the last eighth post was reached. He was soon followed by the Bradley youngster, and the race then resolved itself into a tilt between Rosewar and the Dunne gelding. When a sixteenth out Winkfield worked his mount gradually to the front, J. V. Kirby finally passing over the line a length in the lead. Rosewar beat the spent Jaubert a length for second place, while the Scoggin colt finished about the same distance in front of Miracle II. The race from the last eighth post was productive of great enthusiasm and was by far the best contest of the day.

The steeplechase resulted in one of the best cross-country affairs of the year, the race being sharply contested between three of the field up to the last jump. Frond was in excellent fettle, and fencing cleanly showed the way for the entire journey. Donation closed on her after taking the last jump, but while it appeared a close struggle all the way down the stretch, Frond had always the most speed of the pair and won handily by half a length. Donation being under a hard drive after taking the last jump. Crest was third, close up to the last jump, but tired badly in the run in. Dick Furber had a strenuous time of it in getting his legs over the various jumps. This was probably due to Clay's timidity, who was afraid to let the old rogue take them in his full stride.

The Conqueror II. picked up a little easy money for Ben Vincent in the second race, beating Ben Battle in a slow gallop by four and a half lengths. Boney Boy, closely attended by Ben Battle, set the pace to the head of the stretch, where the latter had enough. The Conqueror II. moving up into the vacated position. Along about the last eighth post the son of Sir Dixon grabbed and passed him with consummate ease, gradually increasing the distance between them as the line was reached. Beauty Book, which finished third a length and a half back of Ben Battle, ran a fair race, holding a good position until a furlong out, where she began to tire. The others were always outrun.

Six Shooter, Rome Reap's good Sir Dixon colt, had no trouble whatever in prevailing over his field in the fourth race, moving away from them as if they were tied in the last sixteenth. Knight never asked him to extend himself until well straightened away for home, allowing him to gallop along within easy call until the last quarter had been reached. Amur and Argregor, heads apart, were fighting it out at the last eighth post when Knight brought Six Shooter along with a rush, passing them with ease and winning in a canter by six lengths. Argregor shook off Amur when a sixteenth out and got second place handily by two lengths from Flying Torpedo, which came with a belated rush at the end. Amur, all out to the last ounce, staggered in fourth.

Hargis should have won the first race but Winkfield appeared to loaf a little in the closing strides and Parnassus headed him out on the post. Lapidus and Hargis ran head and head to the last eighth where the former quit and fell back. It appeared very much as if Hargis had everything his own way in the last eighth but Birkenruth brought Parnassus up with a rush along in here and in a ding-dong finish shot his head over the line first to the surprise of many of Hargis' backers. Lapidus finished a poor third six lengths away. Red Hook, supposed to be the contender, was never a factor, being badly outrun all the way. Ren-gow showed early speed but retired when about an eighth out.

The last race of the day went to Gawaine, which ran a much better race than on the occasion of his last previous attempt. Ranch took the gelding into the lead and kept him there to the end, although hard driven to stall off the determined rush of Nettie Regent in the closing strides. Odnor, which ran third, did not run up to his recent good form.

Secretary Clark is of the opinion the starters for the Superior Stakes tomorrow will be Advance Guard, 126; Sidney Lucas, 121; Pink Coat, 121; Frank Thompson, 110; Hernando, 103; Star Chamber, 100; Six Shooter, 94; Fox Bard, 94; Our Nellie, 90; Tammany Chief, 90, and Ben Chance, 90.

THE SARATOGA MEETING.

Racing begins at Saratoga next Monday and there is no doubt that the famous old course is to be the scene of a meeting that will by far excel all that have been held there in many years past. Under date of July 30 a letter from there to an eastern exchange says:

"A visit to the old Saratoga race course today was most interesting. In preparation for the meeting which begins here on Monday there was an air of bustle about the grounds that foreshadowed success.

"F. T. Clarke of Sheephead Bay has been on the grounds for the last two weeks, and under his direction the place has been beautified and rearranged.

"There is a lawn of grass in front of the grandstand instead of the old brick bed that made the racegoers feel footsore. The club house has been elaborately refitted and placed at an angle where the gentlemen who now control the destinies of the course can have a perfect and uninterrupted view of the races.

"A fieldstand has been built near the pavilion and at 50 cents per head the populace can see as much of a race as their wealthier friends in the grandstand. Boxes have been arranged for the members of the Saratoga Polo Club on the grandstand.

"The steeplechase course has been rearranged and is now in perfect shape. The inner rails of the track have been rebuilt and are now a trifle higher, with a slight slant to the inside, which will do much to avoid accidents on the turns.

"The interest that the new management is taking in the course is emphasized by the building of new private stables by several of the most prominent turfmen. August Belmont has erected a stable with twenty-four stalls. F. R. Hitchcock has one near completion that will have room for twenty racers, and Messrs. Sanford & Sons have one with thirty stalls. Dunwell and Chickadee showed remarkably good form and finished stoutly. Step Onward was running strongly at the end. Octoron closed a gap, but hung right at the end. Lieschen can do better. Avis, off badly, closed a gap and will do to watch.

May W. showed the way under a strong pull to the stretch with Water Cure and St. Finnan driving hard right from the start to keep within striking distance. The last named retired badly beaten in the first half, with Water Cure fighting and whipping for the remainder of the journey but unable to get up to the winner which was called on in the last quarter putting up a very game finish. Water Cure was evidently not good after his bad race in the mud the day before.

All Green essayed in vain at different stages to force the pace. Mortallo was always outrun and under a drive throughout. Lombre, off poorly, a d badly handled, ran wide on the turns, but closed in the last quarter with a tremendous rush. Lady Sterling, on the outside throughout, closed an immense gap. THE SARATOGA MEETING.

these are on the backstretch, and barring the Hitchcock stable are ready for occupancy.

"J. E. Madden has purchased stables on the backstretch of sufficient size to accommodate the lengthy string that races in his colors.

"Superintendent W. Puckett has the track in perfect shape, and the trainers think it was never safer or faster. There are a large number of horses now at the course than were ever seen there before. The main track and Horse Haven are all crowded, and with the new arrivals that are expected between now and opening day the management will be put to their wits' ends to supply the necessary accommodations.

"The J. F. Schorr string are here in strength.
'Brown Dick' also has a string at the track.
G. W. Poole, now at Chicago, has made application for stable room for a large string and will arrive in a day or two.

"Secretary H. D. McIntyre arrived last night.
"Several of the racers at the track have been ailing a bit. The trouble has not been confined to any particular lot, and it is thought not to be of a serious nature.

A few racers just from the Long Island tracks have developed a slight coughing, and with some of the strings it is a mouth disease that is the trouble. The W. P. Burch lot has been slightly affected with the last named trouble, but the trainer looks upon it as something that will pass over in a little time.

"The track during the galloping hours this morning was muddy. It has been raining for a couple of days and nothing in the way of speed work was attempted. There were a number of horses shown, however, and as I did not hear the sound of a cough it was hard to believe that there was any serious trouble in store for the racers that are to supply the sport for the coming meeting.

"Peter Wimmer showed Imp off to jogging exercise. The great mare looks in splendid shape. She turned a mile and a furlong a day or two ago when the track was good in 1:56 and the trainer has great hopes for her.

"T. J. Healey's The Parader did a mile and a furlong in 2:03. The trainer has been in no hurry with him since being here, and the son of Longstreet—Pretense is ready for what is to come. There are no sick horses in the string.

"J. W. Rogers has Nasturtium going again, and, while the track was in good shape, he was allowed a half mile breather in 59 seconds.

"The W. O. Scully lot were shown to easy exercise. Glennellie has been going particularly well since being here and has shown some speed in her work. Leonora Loring has been troubled a bit with 'that disease,' but the trainer expects her to round to all right.

"James McLaughlin showed First Whip off to some breezing work. The stable's other racers were on the easy side."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

There is a ten-cent stand outside the Bigh-ton Beach race track, right across, opposite the grandstand. On Friday there was quite a sensation occasioned by its being raided, and one alleged bookmaker arrested. He said he was Malcolm Robertson of Third avenue, Brooklyn.
He had $176 in his pocket, all in one-dollar bills, and these were taken care of by the police. Every year when the Brighton Beach meeting opens, the squatters of "Duck Hill" erect ten-foot stands behind the shanties on Neptune avenue. Only 10 cents admission is charged, and is well patronized. Several young men hit upon a scheme of giving the patrons of the place the same privilege of betting that the track patrons have, only on a cheaper scale.
They made books and accept bets from 10 cents to a dollar. Most of the bets were of the 10-cent variety. When a man made a dollar bet he was known as a plunger. Soon the place became known as the "two-cent gambling house." That was when craps, red and black and sweat games were introduced. While it is not believed that the Metropolitan Turf Association made any complaint, it is said that Bob Pinkerton, who looks after the interest of the race track people, spoke to the police about the heavy betting going on in the "Squatter's Stand." When the raid was made the ten-cent stand was filled.
The occupants fled on the approach of the police.—Spirit of the Times.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Captain Tilles, president of the St. Louis Fair Association, announced recently that the association would at once open five new fall stakes for competition over the Fair Grounds track. Each stake will have $1,000 added, which should make it worth $2,500, all told. The announcement should have the effect of drawing many good horses to St. Louis.

Winner—B. c. by Margrave—Mount Vernon.
Went to post at 4:55. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second easily. Margra-vate and Scurry far outclassed the field. The winner got off first and Scurry broke last, but quickly ran into prominence and appeared to be the winner on the turn, but the effort to get up took too much out of him and he hung on the lead. He was probably best. Whistling Con ran a surprisingly good race at the distance. Bill Massie closed well from the half.

As there are few seven furlong races on the Brighton program that call for starting on the turn, the stewards requested secretary Bayard to alter the conditions so as to increase or diminish the distance. The request was complied with, and hereafter the races scheduled for seven furlongs will be run at six furlongs.

on the place.

Nat Goodwin ran away a mile and a half while the horses were at the post.

Went to post at 3:05. At post 9 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second handily. The Conqueror II., always well up, came away as his rider pleased in the last eighth. Ben Battle ran a good race and was easily the best of the others. Beauty Book was tired when a furlong out, but hung on gamely. Boney Boy had enough after five and a half furlongs had been run. Anthracite was outrun through the whole journey.

Scratched—26843 Recursor, 103.

Went to post at 3:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Frond fenced cleanly throughout and stalled off Donation's bid in the stretch with ease. The latter under punishment closed on the winner but she showed the most speed all the way through the stretch. Crest was right there to the last jump and then tired. Dick Furber had a hard time getting over every jump. Clay who rode him appeared to be afraid to approach the obstacles on a run.

Winner—Br. c. by Sir Dixon—Kentucky Belle II.

Went to post at 4:15. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Six Shooter was never called upon until well into the stretch, where Knight swung his whip and the colt came away from his field with a rush. Agregor was right there all the way and stood a drive from the last sixteenth post home. Flying Torpedo finished strongly, but came too late to be of any avail. Amur died away in the final quarter after showing quite a burst of speed for six furlongs. Hart D. showed early speed.

Rosewar moved up fast when entering the stretch, but was tiring slightly at the end. Jaubert had enough by the time the last sixteenth had been reached, after showing easily in front up to that point. Miracle II. made a strong bid a furlong out, but tired in the closing strides.

Went to post at 5:10. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second easily. Gawaine ran easily in front to the last eighth, but had all he could do to stall off Nettie Regent's determined bid in the last hundred yards. The latter ran a corking good race and would have won in a stride or two more. Odnor tired a furlong out. Our Nellie made up ground and finished stoutly. Prairie Dog ran well for seven furlongs, and the same may be said of El Ghor.

Winner—B. g. by Tyrant—Baby.

Went to post at 2:54. At post 13 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second the same. Cunningham took the short route with Tyrba, saved ground at all turns and put up a strong finish, outdripping Jackson when it came to a drive. Lady Silver ran a good race and fought it out all through the last quarter with the winner. Tamarin was bumped about in the first furlong but made up a lot of ground in the last quarter. Little Sallie tired, she was off well and had no mishaps.

Winner—Ch. c. by Sir Modred—Cloister.

Went to post at 3:33. At post 14 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Moderator is a bad actor at the post. He cut up and fell twice while wheeling around, but took the short route and fought it out gamely when it came to a drive. The winner is a grand looker and if he settles down will make a good horse. Barricade was given a perfect ride and had no mishap. He is improving but hung today in the last sixteenth. Katherine R. finished stoutly and just managed to last long enough to stall off Quixada. The latter was in a down pocket and was just managed to last long enough to stall off Quixada. The latter was in a down pocket and was just managed to last long enough to stall off Quixada. Went to post at 4:13. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. The race was only an easy gallop for Wine Press. She showed much speed and made a show of her field. Belcourt ran well but had to stall off Radford. The latter finished strongly and was gaining fast. Gray Dally got away poorly and had no chance after the flag fell. J. H. Sloan sulked. Went to post at 4:38. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Lewis got Lac off well in motion, but had to hustle him along all the way and his mount was straight in the run home to stall off Easy Street. Went to post at 5:02. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Hieaway quickly went through his field, opened up a gap when rounding the far turn and was only cantering at the end. McQuade got Euclaire in a pocket and had her under a choking pull to the stretch turn. She might have won but for this. Branch finished with a rush and beat Racebud out in the last stride. Jackson pulled the latter up at the end and threw third place away.

Winner—B. f. by Albert—Spanker.

Went to post at 5:38. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Maggie W. showed much the most speed and was never in trouble. Jackson sat still and never made a move on her. Maple was as easily the best of the others. Badinage and Miss Redwood fought it out through the last furlong for third place. It was a poor ride on Lady Hayman. She was off well in motion next to the inside rail, but Daly was afraid to go through. Tenderloin was given an easy ride.

Scratched—27108 Rough Rider, 102.

Maggie W., show, 1 to 2. Maple, show, 7 to 10. Badinage, show, 8 to 5. Lady Hayman, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c. by Pirate of Penance—Chippie.

Went to post at 2:31. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second easily. The first two had it between them throughout. It was a ding-dong struggle all through the stretch, Pine Chip outgaming Nelse Morris at the end. Dr. Fannie ran well for the first time out here. She is erratic, however, and cannot be depended upon. Pretty Rosie ran below his true form. Brown Vail seemingly could not raise an ordinary gallop. Dr. Clark quit in the stretch run.

Scratched—26974 Red Apple, 107.

Pine Chip, show, out. Nelse Morris, show, out. Dr. Fannie, show, 3 to 1. Dr. Clark, show, 4 to 5. Pretty Rosie, show, out.
